Re Exceptional Service

The Apartment Association of Colorado Springs has been doing business with Bing Promotional Products for many years now. As you know, we have a variety of events where we give away prizes, gifts and awards. Whether it is a trophy for the Chili Cook-off, the coveted Ethel Horton Award or medal for the Maintenance Olympics, the quality is always superior.

The staff at Bing Promotional Products is always happy to help with our order. Even when it is on short notice or a special order, they are always courteous, prompt and professional.

Regardless of what the request is, a strange color, an odd design or something that has to be just right, you are always able to find what we need. We look forward to working with you in the future and wish you the best of luck with all your business endeavors. Thanks for all that you do to make our events special.

Sincerely,

Laura Russman
